ACT 1.

AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF DEFRAYING THE EXPENSES OF THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII OF THE YEAR 1901 FROM THE PUBLIC TREASURY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. There shall be and hereby is appropriated the sum of Forty-five Thousand ($45,000.00) Dollars from the Public Treasury for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the session of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii of the year 1901.

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 27th day of March, A. D. 1901.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 2.*AN ACT RELATING TO THE CRIMINAL JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT MAGISTRATES AND AMENDING SECTION 1 OF ACT 40 OF THE LAWS OF 1896 AND SECTION 11 OF CHAPTER LVII OF THE LAWS OF 1892.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. That Section 1 of Act 40 of the Session Laws of 1896 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 1. District Magistrates shall have jurisdiction of, and their criminal jurisdiction is hereby limited to, criminal offences punishable by fine, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year whether with or without hard labor or with or without fine: Provided, however, that they shall not have jurisdiction over any offense for which the accused cannot be held to answer unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury; and, provided, further, that in any case cognizable by a District Magistrate as aforesaid in which the accused shall have the right to a trial by jury in the first instance, the District Magistrate, upon demand by the accused for such trial by jury, shall not exercise jurisdiction over such case, but shall examine and discharge or commit for trial the accused as provided by law, but if in any such case the accused shall not demand a trial by jury in the first instance, the District Magistrate may exercise jurisdiction over the same, subject to the right of appeal as provided by law.”

SECTION 2. That Section 11 of Chapter LVII of the Session Laws of 1892 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 11. District Magistrates shall have power, subject to appeal according to law, and except as otherwise provided in cases in which the accused shall have the right to and shall demand a trial by jury in the first instance, to try without a jury, and to render judgment in all cases of criminal offences coming within their respective jurisdictions, provided, however, that any person arrested upon a charge of having committed an offense in a District other than that in which he was arrested, may elect upon the consent of a duly authorized prosecuting officer, to be tried therefor in the District where he was arrested. Their criminal jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the Judicial Circuit in which their respective districts are situated for the purpose of the arrest, examination, commitment and enlargement of parties accused, the issue of search warrants according to law, and to compel the attendance of witnesses."

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect on the day of its publication.

Approved this 10th day of April, A. D. 1901.

ACT 8.*AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE NUMBERING OF BUILDINGS IN THE DISTRICT OF HONOLULU, ISLAND OF OAHU.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The Superintendent of Public Works shall have the power and it shall be his duty to regulate the numbering of all the houses in the District of Honolulu, Island of Oahu.

SECTION 2. All main entrances to buildings from streets, roads, or lanes shall be numbered, and the Superintendent of Public Works shall assign to each house its proper number or numbers and deliver free of charge to the owner or occupant a certificate designating each number and the location.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of every person owning any building fronting on any street, road or lane in the District of Honolulu, to number the same or cause the same to be numbered correctly within sixty days after the receipt of a designated number or numbers from the Superintendent of Public Works and to remove or efface any wrong number upon such building, and it shall be the duty of every person owning any building hereafter erected to apply to the Superintendent of Public Works and so number the same within one week after its completion or occupancy.

SECTION 4. All buildings must be numbered at the expense of the owner.

SECTION 5. All numbers shall be placed in such a manner as to be readily seen from the street, road or lane; shall be of a different color from the background on which they are placed, and shall be at least two inches in height. The numbers shall be placed in a substantial and permanent manner, chalk or other easily effaceable material not being permitted.

SECTION 6. Any person tearing down, defacing or changing any number put up in accordance with this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject upon conviction to a fine of not more than ten dollars nor less than one dollar.

SECTION 7. Any owner of a building in the District of Honolulu who neglects to number such building as herein provided or who shall place, maintain or allow to remain thereon any number other than that directed by the Superintendent of Public Works after being notified in writing by the Superintendent of Public Works or who shall number such building without first obtaining the proper number from the Superintendent of Public Works shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, and a further penalty of like sum for every two weeks thereafter that he shall neglect or refuse to properly number such building or to efface an improper number.

SECTION 8. This Act shall take effect from the date of its approval.

Approved this 24th day of April A. D., 1901.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 9.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PERSONAL PROPERTY FROM ATTACHMENT, EXECUTION, DISTRESS AND FORCED SALE OF EVERY NATURE AND DESCRIPTION; AND REPEALING AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE RECOVERY OF RENTS," PASSED ON THE TENTH DAY OF JANUARY, 1865, AND ALL OTHER LAWS AND PARTS OF LAWS IN CONFLICT WITH THIS ACT.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. That the following described personal property shall be exempt from attachment, execution, distress and forced sale of every nature and description:

SECTION 2. All necessary household, table and kitchen furniture, including one sewing machine, crockery, tin and plated ware, calabashes and mats, family portraits and photographs and their necessary frames, all wearing apparel, bedding, household linen, and provisions provided for household use sufficient for three months.

SECTION 3. All farming implements and utensils not exceeding in value the sum of Five Hundred Dollars; also two oxen, two horses or mules, and their harness; food for such oxen, horses or mules for one month; one cart, brake or wagon; and one horse, one set of single harness and one vehicle belonging to any person who is maimed or crippled.

SECTION 4. The tools or implements of a mechanic or artisan necessary to enable him to carry on his trade; the instruments and chest of a surgeon, physician, surveyor and dentist, necessary to the exercise of their profession, together with their necessary office furniture and fixtures; the necessary office furniture, fixtures, blanks, stationery and office equipment of attorneys, judges, ministers of the gospel, and rabbis; the typewriter, one desk and half a dozen chairs of a stenographer or typewriter; the musical instruments of every teacher of music used by them in giving instruction; one bicycle when the same is used by its owner for the purpose of carrying on his regular business or when the same is used for the purpose of transporting the owner to and from his place of business; the fishing nets, dips and seines, and the boats, with their tackle and equipment, of every fisherman.

SECTION 5. Two horses or two mules and their harness, one cart or wagon or stage, one dray or truck, one coupe or hack or carriage for one or two horses, by the use of which a cartman, drayman, truckster, huckster, peddler, hackman, teamster, or other laborer actually earns his living; and one horse and harness and one vehicle used by a physician, surgeon, or minister of the gospel, in the practice or exercise of his business or profession.

SECTION 6. The nautical instruments and wearing apparel of every master, officer and seaman of any steamship or other vessel.

SECTION 7. All books, maps, pamphlets, magazines and manuscripts of every kind, nature and description, together with the book-cases, shelving, cabinets or other devices for holding the same; provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to such of the articles herein specified as are kept for sale by any dealer therein.

SECTION 8. The wages of every laborer or person working for wages, such person being the head of a family, to the amount of Two Hundred Dollars, and every other person to the amount of Fifty Dollars.

SECTION 9. The proceeds of insurance on, and the proceeds of the sale of, and of the property in this Act mentioned, for the period of three months from the date such proceeds are received.

SECTION 10. No property mentioned in this Act shall be exempt from attachment for, nor from execution issued upon a judgment recovered for the purchase price thereof, or upon a judgment of foreclosure of a mortgage thereon, nor for taxes or fines or any debt due the Territory of Hawaii.

SECTION 11. Where an officer shall be about to levy an attachment, execution, or other process on personal property, some of which shall be claimed as exempt, he shall demand of the defendant in writing that he make selection of such property as is exempt to him and in reference to which he has the right of selection; and the defendant shall then and there make his selection; or, failing so to do, the officer shall make it for him, and any selection so made shall be conclusive on the defendant.

SECTION 12. If any officer shall levy or be about to levy an attachment, execution or other process on any property claimed as exempt under this Act, and a doubt shall arise as to the liability of the property to be seized or sold, he may demand of the plaintiff a bond with sufficient sureties, payable to such officer, in a sufficient penalty, conditional to indemnify and save harmless the officer against all damages, costs and expenses which he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale of the property, and if such bond be not given after twenty-four hours' notice, in writing, from the officer to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, that it is required, the officer may refuse to levy, or, having levied, may dismiss the levy; but, if the required bond be given, the officer shall seize and sell or dispose of the property according to the command of the process in his hands.

SECTION 13. If any officer or other person shall seize or sell any property exempt from execution under this Act he shall be liable to an action at the suit of the owner for all damages and costs sustained thereby, including an attorney's fee to be fixed by the court before whom the action is tried, and the fact that such officer or person has demanded and received the indemnifying bond mentioned in the preceding Section shall not exempt him from the liability in this Section specified.

SECTION 14. Any defendant whose exempt property is seized may, if he desires, replevy the same from the officer or other person seizing it, by giving bond in such sum and with such sureties as may be approved by the officer or such other person, or by the judge of the court out of which the process issued, payable to the plaintiff in the attachment, execution or other process, and conditioned to have the property forthcoming to abide the event of the issue to be made up upon the return of the process; and in such case the officer shall deliver the property to the defendant, and return the bond, with the attachment, execution or other process, to the court whence it issued; and thereupon an issue shall be made under the direction of the court or judge and tried as an action at law. In such issue the plaintiff in attachment, execution or other process, shall be the plaintiff, and the defendant therein shall be the defendant in such issue. If the issue be found for the plaintiff he shall have judgment against the defendant and his sureties on the forthcoming bond for the value of the property and the cost of the suit, but, if the issue be found for the defendant, he shall recover his damages and costs sustained thereby, including an attorney's fee to be fixed by the court before whom the issue is tried. Every fact found on the issue so made between the plaintiff and defendant shall be conclusive evidence thereof for either party in any action brought by the defendant against the officer or other person who may have seized his exempt property; but, the mere fact that such defendant has recovered judgment for his damages and costs against the plaintiff in the issue hereinbefore referred to shall not bar his right of recovery against such officer or other person unless such judgment shall have been paid.

SECTION 15. An Act entitled "An Act to facilitate the recovery of rents," approved on the tenth day of January, 1865, and all and every other law and laws, and parts of laws, in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 16. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved this 24th day of April, A. D. 1901.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 15.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE ASCERTAINMENT AND PAYMENT OF ALL CLAIMS WHICH MAY BE MADE BY PERSONS WHOSE PROPERTY WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE IN THE YEARS A. D.
1899 AND 1900 UNDER ORDERS OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. A Commission of five disinterested and competent Citizens of the Territory of Hawaii of whom at least one shall be an Attorney of the Supreme Court, shall be appointed by the Governor to hear and investigate all claims for damages which may be presented by persons who suffered a loss of property by its destruction under orders of the Board of Health, or in consequence of orders by said Board, in connection with the suppression of the Bubonic Plague in the Territory of Hawaii, or by the spreading of the conflagration of January 20th, 1900.

SECTION 2. The Governor shall within five days after the passage of this Act nominate such Commissioners, which nominations shall be subject to the confirmation of the Senate of the Territory, and one of the said Commissioners shall be appointed Chairman of the Commission by the Governor; and if the Senate shall fail to confirm any nomination, the Governor shall within three days after such rejection submit the name of another or other nominees. The Governor shall have power to fill any vacancies which may occur from time to time in the Commission subject to the confirmation of the Senate of the Territory if it be then in session.

SECTION 3. The said Commission shall give public notice of its organization and that such claims for damages may be presented and filed for its consideration, by publication of such notice in the English and Hawaiian languages.

SECTION 4. The Commission shall, in daily public session during such hours as it may designate and at some convenient place, of which time and place notice shall be given, hear and examine the proofs of the alleged losses and in accordance therewith render their decision and judgment of allowance, modification or disallowance of any claims submitted to them.

SECTION 5. The Commission shall have power to appoint a Clerk, Stenographer, Bailiff, and Interpreters; it shall have the same power which is conferred on the Circuit Courts to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and accounts; to punish persons guilty of contempt; and make all necessary rules and regulations for conducting its business. Each Commissioner and the Clerk of the Commission shall be authorized to administer oaths and to take affirmations.

SECTION 6. The Commission shall after rendering its decision upon the claims submitted to it cause such decision to be entered in a Record of Judgments, which judgments shall be signed by at least a majority of the Commissioners; such judgments shall be final and no appeal lie therefrom.

The record of each judgment shall show:—

1. Date of judgment.
2. Date of filing claim on which it is rendered.
3. Name of claimant, or, where an assignment of the claim has been made, the name of the Assignee.
4. Kind of property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed.
5. The facts found and the amount awarded by the Commission.

SECTION 7. No claim for speculative or consequential damage, or for loss of rent or use of property, or loss of profits through the interruption of business, nor any loss except for the destruction of or direct damage to property by fire or removal shall be considered by the Commission; nor shall any such claim be considered at all unless presented to and filed with the Commission within four months of the publication provided for in Section 3 of this Act.

SECTION 8. All claims shall be filed in duplicate by the Claimants or their Assignees and shall be verified by their oath respectively, and if the claimant be deceased or a minor the claim shall be presented by his legal representative.

SECTION 9. Each claim shall contain an itemized statement in the English or Hawaiian language of the loss sustained, the date of the loss and how it occurred, the nature of the property lost and its situation at the time of its loss, and, if the loss consist of destruction of or damage to a building, the name of the owner of the land whereon it stood and the nature of the interest of the Claimant or his Assignee in the building. In case of insurance, the amount for which the property was insured, the name of the insurer, and how much insurance was paid thereon shall be stated.

SECTION 10. The judgments recorded as provided in Section 6 of this Act shall be paid out of the following appropriation:

The sum of Fifteen Hundred Thousand Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying the awards or judgments made or rendered by said Commission, for which purpose all moneys hereafter returned by the United States Government to the Territory of Hawaii, on account of payment of interest on bonds, are hereby specifically appropriated, the balance of said Fifteen Hundred Thousand Dollars to be paid out of the general revenues of the Territory of Hawaii.

And said appropriation of Fifteen Hundred Thousand Dollars to be distributed over a period of three years at a rate not to exceed Five Hundred Thousand Dollars per year.

In payment of the awards or judgments the Treasurer is hereby ordered to pay all awards and judgments pro rata at all times.

SECTION 11. All acts to be done by said Commission may be legally done by a majority of its members.

SECTION 12. The Territory may appear before the Commission by Attorney and present evidence and otherwise defend against such claims, and may, with the consent of the Commissioners, adjust or compromise any or all of said claims.

The Clerk of the Commission shall deliver one copy of each claim filed to the Attorney General, and no other service upon the Territory shall be required. It shall not be necessary for the Territory to answer or to otherwise join issue on any claim.

SECTION 13. Claims shall be heard in the order in which they are filed unless the Commission shall for special reason otherwise direct. But no claim shall be heard within three days after the same is filed.

SECTION 14. The Commission may call for sworn copies of the minutes, resolutions, and records of the Board of Health as to the sanitary and other conditions of the premises condemned by the Board; and may accept the same as evidence or summon the members of the Board of Health and its Agents to give testimony in relation thereto. But nothing herein contained shall be held to debar the Claimants affected by such written or oral evidence from producing evidence in rebuttal thereof.

SECTION 15. The Commission shall not be bound to follow the rules of the common law in relation to pleadings, practice and the admission and rejection of evidence, but shall exercise its discretion therein with the view of doing substantial justice.

SECTION 16. There is hereby appropriated the sum of Seventeen Thousand Four Hundred Dollars, payable out of the general revenues of the Territory, to defray the following expenses of the Commission:—

Commissioners at $10 per diem while in session.....	$9,000.00
Counsel for Territory at $250 per month.....	1,500.00
Clerk of Commission at $150 per month.....	900.00

ACT 19.

AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION 30 OF CHAPTER LVII. OF THE SESSION LAWS OF 1892.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. That the second paragraph of Section 30 of Chapter LVII. of the Session Laws of 1892 be amended so as to read as follows:

"The Circuit Court of the First Circuit shall consist of three Judges, who shall be styled First, Second and Third Judges respectively of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, either of whom may hold the Court."

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect from the date of its publication.

Approved this 30th day of April, A. D. 1901.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 20.*AN ACT TO PROVIDE A TAX ON INCOMES.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of July, A. D. 1901, there shall be levied, assessed, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income, over and above one thousand dollars, derived by every person residing in the Territory of Hawaii from all property owned, and every business, trade, profession, employment or vocation carried on in the Territory, and by every person residing without the Territory from all property owned, and every business, trade, profession, employment or vocation carried on in the Territory, and by every servant, or officer, of the Territory wherever residing, a tax of TWO PER CENT on the amount so derived during the year preceding.

SECTION 2. There shall be levied, assessed, collected and paid annually, except as hereinafter provided, a tax of TWO PER CENT on the net profit or income above actually operating and business expenses, from all property owned, and every business, trade, employment or vocation carried on in the Territory of Hawaii, of all corporations doing business for profit in the Territory, no matter where created and organized; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall apply to corporations, companies or associations conducted solely for charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes, including fraternal beneficiary societies, nor to insurance companies taxed on a percentage of the premiums under the authority of another Act.

SECTION 3. In estimating the gains, profits and income of any person or corporation, there shall be included all income derived from interest upon notes, bonds and other securities, except such bonds of the Territory of Hawaii or of municipalities hereafter created by the Territory the principal and interest of which are by the law of their issuance exempt from all taxation; profits realized within the year preceding from sales of real estate, including leaseholds purchased within two years; dividends upon the stock of any corporation; the amount of all premiums on bonds, notes or coupons; the amount of sales of all movable property, less the amount expended in the purchase or production of the same, and in the case of a person not including any part thereof consumed directly by him or his family; money and the value of all personal property acquired by gift or inheritance, and all other gains, profits and income derived from any source whatsoever.

SECTION 4. The net profits or income of all corporations shall include the amounts paid or payable to, or distributed or distributable among shareholders from any fund or account, or carried to the account of any fund or used for construction, enlargements of plant, or any other expenditure or investment paid from the net annual profits made or acquired by said corporation.

In computing incomes, the necessary expenses actually incurred in carrying on any business, trade, profession or occupation, or in managing any property, shall be deducted, and also all interest paid by such person or corporation on existing indebtedness. And all government taxes and license fees paid within the year shall be deducted from the gains, profits or income of the person who or the corporation which has actually paid the same, whether such person or corporation be owner, tenant or mortgagor; also all losses actually sustained during the year incurred in trade or arising from losses by fire not covered by insurance, or losses otherwise actually incurred.

Provided, that no deduction shall be made for any amount paid out for new buildings, permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate.

Provided further, that no deduction shall be made for personal or family expenses, the exemption of one thousand dollars mentioned in Section 1 being in lieu of same.

Provided further, that where allowable herein only one deduction of one thousand dollars shall be made from the aggregate annual income of all the members of one family composed of one or both parents and one or more minor children, or husband and wife; that guardians shall be allowed to make a deduction in favor of each and every ward, except where two or more wards are comprised in one family, in which case the aggregate deduction in their favor shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

Provided further, that in assessing the income of any person or corporation there shall not be included the amount received from any corporation as dividends upon the stock of such corporation if the tax of two per cent. has been assessed upon its net profits by said corporation as required by this Act, nor any bequest or inheritance otherwise taxed as such.

SECTION 5. Every corporation doing business for profit in the Territory shall make and render to the Assessor of its Tax Division, between the first and thirty-first days of July of each year, beginning with the year 1901, a full return verified by oath or affirmation of its duly empowered officer, in such form as the Treasurer of the Territory may prescribe, of all the following matters for the whole twelve months ending June 30th last preceding the date of such return:

First.—The gross receipts of such corporation from sales made at home or abroad, and from all kinds of business of any name or nature;

Second.—The expenses of such corporation, exclusive of interest, annuities and dividends;

Third.—The amount paid on account of interest, annuities and dividends stated separately;

Fourth.—The amount expended on permanent improvements;

Fifth. The amount paid in salaries or compensation of more than six hundred dollars to each person employed, and the name and amount paid to each.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of all persons of lawful age having an income of six hundred dollars or more for the preceding year from all sources and of all corporations made liable to income tax to make and render a list or return, between the first and thirty-first days of July of each year, in such form as the Treasurer of the Territory may direct, to the Assessor of the Division in which such persons or corporations reside, locate or do business of the amount of their or its income, gains and profits as aforesaid; and all guardians, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, receivers, and all corporations or persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, shall make or render a list or return as aforesaid to the Assessor of the Division in which such person or corporation acting in a fiduciary capacity resides or does business of the amount of income, gains and profits of any minor or person for whom they act, and the Assessor shall require every list or return to be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person or authorized officer of the corporation making the same.

If any person or corporation refuse or neglect to render such return within the time required as aforesaid, or renders a return which in the opinion of the Assessor is false and fraudulent, or contains any understatement, it shall be lawful for the Assessor to summon such person, of any of the officers of such corporation or any person having possession, custody or care of books of accounts containing entries relating to the business of such person or corporation, or any other person he may deem proper, wherever residing or found, to appear before him and produce such books at a time and place named in the summons, and to give testimony or answer interrogations under oath respecting any income liable to tax or the returns thereof. False, wilful testimony given before such Assessor shall be deemed perjury and punishable as such.

SECTION 7. It shall be the duty of every person or corporation doing business for profit to keep full, regular and accurate books of accounts upon which all its transactions shall be entered from day to day in regular order, which books shall be open to the inspection of the Assessor of the Division or any person authorized by him to inspect the same, during business hours.

SECTION 8. When any person or corporation having a taxable income refuses or neglects to render any return or list required by law or decline to take oath or affirmation thereto the Assessor may make such assessments as he may consider just and the same shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties and shall not be subject to appeal. In case of any false or fraudulent return or valuation by any tax payer the Assessor shall add 200 per cent. to a just valuation of the income of such tax payer and the amount of the tax assessed on such increase shall become part of the tax on the said income.

SECTION 9. Any person or corporation who or which has made a legal return as aforesaid may appeal from the amount assessed to the Tax Appeal Court constituted under Act 51 of the Session Laws of 1896, in like manner as allowed in case of property tax appeals and the said Court is hereby authorized to hear and determine such appeals subject to the revision of the Supreme Court as provided in the case of property taxes. Where the words "valuation of property" or similar words occur in said Act concerning such appeals the words "amount of taxable income" shall be understood in all proceedings in regard to appeals from assessment or judgments in income tax matters. Any person or corporation appealing from the assessment of the Assessor shall lodge with the Assessor on or before the first day of October of each year a notice in writing of his intention to appeal and the grounds of such appeal, and deposit with him the costs of appeal as prescribed in case of property taxes which cost shall be subject to the regulations prescribed in said Act. The said Tax Appeal Court shall sit for hearing of tax appeals under the authority of this Act between the fifth and twenty-fifth days of October of each year.

SECTION 10. The taxes on income imposed shall be due and payable on or before the fifteenth day of November of each year; and any sum or sums annually due and unpaid after the said fifteenth day of November shall have added thereto ten per cent. on the amount which shall be and become a part of such tax. Interest at the rate of nine per cent. per annum shall be added to the amount of such tax and penalty from the time same shall become due.

All the powers, authorities and rights to compensation by Chapter 51 of the Session Laws of 1896 conferred on the Tax Appeal Court constituted under the authority of said Chapter for hearing and determining appeals duly taken thereunder are conferred on said Court for hearing and determining appeals under this Act, and all the powers, authorities, and duties contained in or enacted by said Chapter for levying, assessing, collecting, receiving and enforcing payments of the tax imposed under the authority of said Chapter and otherwise relating thereto shall be severally and respectively conferred, practiced and exercised for levying, assessing, collecting and receiving and enforcing payment of the tax imposed under the authority of this Act, as far as the same shall not be superseded by, and shall be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the same powers and authorities were repeated and re-enacted in the body of this Act with reference to said tax, and all and every the regulations of the said Chapter, except as aforesaid, shall be applied, construed, deemed and taken to refer to the tax imposed under the authority of this Act, in like manner as if the same had been enacted herein. The assessments made under the authority of this Act and the Assessment Books and Delinquent Tax Lists made in accordance with the provisions of said Chapter 51 of the Session Laws of 1896 shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the tax imposed under this Act in any case.

SECTION 11. The Treasurer of the Territory shall furnish the several Assessors all necessary books, blanks, and stationery to carry out the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 12. Act 65 of the Session Laws of 1896 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 13. This Act shall take effect on the first day of July, A. D. 1901.

Approved this 30th day of April, A. D. 1901.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

SECTION 2. In the construction of all new roads or bridges and in the expenditures of all specific appropriations for the repairing of the roads and bridges it shall first be necessary that the Road Board of the several Districts in which such new work is contemplated shall approve of the same and all such work shall be under the supervision of the Road Board of the District in which such new work is being carried on, and the final acceptance of all such work by the Superintendent of Public Works shall be on the certificate from such Road Board that the same has been done in a good and workmanlike manner and as provided by the contract and specifications.

SECTION 3. It shall be lawful for the Treasurer to continue to make payments in accordance with the appropriations authorized by this Act, until the Thirtieth Day of June, 1903.

SECTION 4. The Auditor shall not draw a warrant in payment for any of the objects named in this Act, except as herein provided, and the unauthorized expenditure of any money from the Treasury to be hereafter accounted for to the Legislature by Indemnity Bill, is hereby expressly prohibited.

SECTION 5. All and every expenditure for constructing or repairing public works amounting to Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, and for furnishing material, provisions and other supplies, shall be awarded only upon public advertisement for tenders; and no public work, material or supplies shall be divided or parcelled out for the purpose of evading the provisions of this Section.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect and become law as of the First Day of July, A. D. 1901.

Approved this 18th day of July, A. D. 1901.

HENRY E. COOPER,
Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.
